UM SUMMER SESSION TO OFFER
INTENSIFIED SPANISH COURSES

MISSOULA----

The Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Montana in Missoula will offer three intensified sequential Spanish courses during the UM summer session beginning June 17.

The three 5-credit courses in beginning Spanish (Span 101, 102, 103) will run June 17 - July 5, July 8 - July 26 and July 29 - August 16, and will meet three hours daily. The accelerated beginning courses are taught on a cultural and multi-media approach.

Also being offered is a 3-credit course, (Span 320) Politics and Geography of South America. This course is open to non-Spanish majors and a knowledge of Spanish is not necessary.
